Creating lasting change...

Year in Review

This year the Gianforte Family Foundation was pleased to give significant gifts to organizations that work to promote traditional family values and choice in education, as well as a local classical Christian school, making education and social reform our largest area of giving for 2010. However, we did not neglect our other areas. For example, we provided large grants to a national organization that mobilizes churches to help the poor and hurting in their community; a center to help emotionally troubled children; and a local entity that gives entrepreneurial assistance to emerging businesses.

We are, as always, thankful to the many groups who are working to help those in need, and we are grateful for the opportunity to participate in the work they are doing.

Areas of Focus

While there are many worthy fields in philanthropy, we have chosen four areas in which to focus our giving so that our foundation can be most effective. Below is a general description of each focus area.

Jobs, Education, and the Family

These organizations work at levels ranging from local to international, advocating issues like school choice, quality education, religious freedom, economic improvement, and traditional family values.

Bozeman Arts and Culture

These organizations enhance the Bozeman community by providing local programs and cultural opportunities.

Valuing and Protecting the Vulnerable

These organizations work to help the hurting and lift people out of poverty by providing disaster relief, education, and emotional and spiritual support.

Christian Outreach and Discipleship

These organizations minister the Christian faith by sharing the gospel, providing discipleship, and supplying faith-based resources to individuals and families.
